EDUCATION

King'ongo Primary School (2003 - 2009)

A
I grew up in Dar es Salaam city and attended King'ongo Primary School near my home. I learned valuable lessons in interpersonal skills, hard work, and sportsmanship.

Loyola High School (2010 - 2013)

Art Studies
I studied at Loyola High School and, over the next four years, gained various skills that have helped me in my career and leadership roles. I also enjoy sports, particularly football, through which I've made many friends.

Arusha Technical College (2015 - 2018)

Certificate in Masonry and Bricklaying
I studied vocational training in masonry and bricklaying. Prior to that, I gained valuable experience from my father and brothers, who are also involved in construction, specializing in residential buildings.
